“ Dad,

Thank you for embracing me as if I were your own daughter. It was a privilege to get to know such an incredible family man, and a privilege to love you and to be loved by you. Thank you for all of the wonderful years of family memories that I otherwise would not have ever gotten to experience unless it was as a part of your family. Thank you for raising such an incredible son, who is now an incredible father to Sterling because all of the love and lessons that you provided to him. Thank you for being the best Pop Pop to all of your beautiful grandkids. I am so grateful that Sterling got to know and love you; he truly adored you. If you lived another 70 years it still would not be enough time to spend with you. I will never forget every hug you gave me, as that is what I will miss the most - the warm embrace of a loving father. Even though I am utterly heartbroken I will keep laughing the loudest, just for you. I will miss you always ❤️

“ Dear "Poncho", as you are rejoicing up in heaven, my heart is saddened to see you go. I'll always remember you as a Big Brother to our family. You were a fun, loving, peaceful guy.... I seen you as the Gentle Giant. You were very helpful with much knowledge on mechanics, sports, news and electronics. I remember the cool Chevy you would drive up to the house with, as it roared down the street. One great childhood memory, is; you and my sis took Johnny and I to our first Drive -In movie (Star Wars) had just come out. I will never forget the hours of fun, with the family gatherings at the kids Birthday parties, the Beach outings, the bon-fires, fishing at the bay, the 4th of July fireworks and especially the New Year's house parties y'all hosted.... You were always the "hostess with the mostest". I'll never forget the time Rosa and I came to visit Vegas. You were the first one up, putting on the coffee and making us girls a buffet of a breakfast! Those are great times which will be forever cherished. Together Thomas, I and our family send our deepest condolences, for no words can express how sorry we are for such great loss. We love you. Rest easy my Brother ☐ 🕯️ 🙏 ✨ ✨ ✨ ✨ ✨
