

Andreana Marie Naomi Gundayao

February 19, 1968 - March 19, 2023

Our beloved mother, grandmother, sister, aunt and friend, Andreana (Drena) Napuanani Gundyao, 55, passed away on March 19, 2023 following a long battle with leukemia. She was born on February 19, 1968, in Honolulu Hawaii.

Ann is the youngest of 6 children. She graduated from Waipahu High School. As time went on, she moved to Las Vegas in the year 2000 and has resided there ever since. Although she was away from Hawaii for some time, her roots, her spirit and her soul was always in Hawaii. She represented the true meaning of “you can take the girl out of Hawaii, but you can’t take Hawaii out of the girl.”

Hula was her passion. She never shied away from dancing or teaching the world her passion. As a child and into her teens, Ann danced professionally with the late Uncle John Pi’ilani Watkins and Germain’s Lu’au. However, Ann’s pride and joy was her ohana. Her children and grandchildren were the light of her life. She loved each and everyone of them wholeheartedly and worked tirelessly to provide for them.

Ann is survived by her husband, Michael Gundyao; daughters Andrea Poti, Shanelle Poti & Brittany Poti; 5 grandchildren: Nehemiah Wright, Robert Camez, Annalyse Camez, Agielina Camez and Audrey Camez. Siblings: Drusilla (Mclean), Mario Lupenui-Corpuz, Victor Lupenui-Corpuz, and Andrew Bonifacio; a host of uncles, aunties, cousins, nieces and nephews and extended family. She was predeceased by her parents Andrew and Adele Bonifacio and brother, Masi Sanchez.

A Memorial Service will be celebrated on Friday, April 14, 2023 at from 3:30-6pm., at the Thomas and Jones Home, 2457 North Decatur Blvd., Las Vegas, NV 89108. Please join us after the service to celebrate Ann's life with song, dance and dinner at Pacific Island Taste, 545 E. Sahara Ave., Las Vegas, NV.
