

Beverly J. Solomon

March 9, 1945 - January 20, 2020

Beverly Solomon was born Beverly Jean White in a small town of Marianna Pennsylvania in 1945. She was the daughter to Enola Miller and James White. She had siblings who preceded her in death. Angeline Williams, Gene White, James Walter White Jr., Elizabeth Jackson, Dorabell Jackson, Arvadella S. Robinson, and Emma Jean Deloris Daniels.

In 1963, Beverly White graduated from Bethlehem Center Senior High School. She soon followed up with her career in nursing.

On December 4, 1970 She married Amos Solomon who preceded her in death. Beverly Solomon found Jesus in 2012 at the Bethlehem Temple Apostolic Church in Port Huron MI.

Her surviving children are Sydney A. Barren, Sean A. Barren, Cassius M Gushiniere Sr., Authur Porter, Enolar Payne, Farrah Mayo, and her son Easu A. A. Solomon who is deceased also preceded her in death.

Beverly Solomon started the fight of her life in 2015. She started the battle with Pancreatic Cancer. On March 9, 2016 she won the fight with cancer and her life was happy again. In.

May 2019, we found out that the cancer resurfaced again, and the fight began again.

She wanted to be with her children and her brother William White Sr. in Las Vegas, so we moved to Las Vegas to honor her wishes. Soon after she arrived, she started her fight with Cancer again and she fought till she couldn't fight anymore.

Beverly Solomon lost her fight on January 20, 2020 with her children, grandchildren and love ones standing by her side while she made her final transition.

She will be greatly missed.