

Carolyn Jean Hawthorne

December 19, 1950 - April 22, 2023

When I come to the end of the road
and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room.
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little, but not too long,
and not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
I'd like to leave an echo whispering
Miss me but let me go.
For this is a journey we all must take,
and each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick of heart,
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds.
Miss me, but let me go.

My Prayers and deepest sympathy to the family! Our connection started years ago when I use to do your nails in the same complex as Wal Mart.

Our families are so deeply connected which started with my dad, the late Louis Conner Sr., your sister and her late husband, and now my best friend lovely Jeanetta.

You will be truly missed!

“ I have wonderful memories of Jeanie, she never missed a bunken party I had when we were teenagers., it was about thirteen girls. My dad Chick Rice would always cook for us. I remember one night we all sneaked out of my house in our babydoll pajamas after my parents were asleep. Our group were always together and Jeanie was the one of the main ones who kept our group together. I love her and will miss her greatly!❤️

In Memory

*Those we Love remain with us,
for Love itself lives on.
Cherished memories never fade,
because a loved one is gone.
Those we Love can never be,
more than a thought apart.
For as long as there is a memory,
they'll live on in our heart.
