Safely Home

I am home in Heaven, dear ones;
Oh, so happy and so bright!
There is perfect joy and beauty
In this everlasting light.
All the pain and grief is over,
Every restless tossing passed;
I am now at peace forever,
Safely home in Heaven at last.
Did you wonder why I so calmly
Trode the valley of the shade?
Oh! But Jesus' love illumined
Every dark and fearful glade.
And He came Himself to meet me
In that way so hard to tread;
And with Jesus' arm to lean on,
Could I have one doubt or dread?
Then you must not grieve so sorely,
For I love you dearly still;
Try to look beyond earth's shadows,
Pray to trust our Father's will.
There is work still waiting for you,

So you must not idly stand;
Do it now, while life remaineth—
You shall rest in Jesus' land.
When that work is all completed,
He will gently call you Home;
Oh, the rapture of that meeting,
Oh, the joy to see you come!

“ It's hard to put into words how much I'll miss my mom who was my best friend. My mom has always been my rock, offering unwavering support and unconditional love. Her wisdom and warmth have guided me through life's toughest moments. She was my best friend, on the other hand, she has always been my partner in crime, sharing countless laughs, adventures, and secrets. The thought of not having her by my side every day feels like a piece of my heart is missing. Yet, I find comfort in the memories we've created and the knowledge that our bond will remain strong, no matter the distance. My heart is forever crushed Momma ❤️ love you always and forever your daughter Yolanda

2 Tim 4:7-8, Momma Wilson, you fought the good fight, you've ran your race, and held fast to your faith in God until he called you home. I wish I could give you back the time that was stolen from you/us. We were robbed of the future we thought was to come. Momma Wilson, I love, you will truly be missed.
