“ I worked with Channon when we were both working out of the Lyndhurst NJ office of Allied Universal. Channon was truly a special person. His presence made others feel good. I don't know if it was his laugh, his humor or if he just had more of the divine presence in his soul than the most of us. His loss is loss for all of us and I will miss our occasional phone calls. I'm a better person for having known him and I will miss him until we meet again. Rest well my friend, and know that you will always live in my heart.

“ Channon was an great colleague but more importantly he was an incredible friend. I treasure all the conversations we have had and the lessons I have learned from him. Thank you Channon for always lighting up a room. Thank you for challenging me to be a better man both personally and professionally. My thoughts and prayers go out to him and all his loved ones. Love you Channon. We will see each other again one day. Rest easy my friend.

“ Channon was more than a colleague—he was a father figure, a best friend, and a trusted confidant. His kindness and compassion could light up any room, and his presence made everyone feel seen and valued. If you had the privilege of knowing Channon, you couldn't help but love him.

His absence has left a space that cannot be filled, but his spirit lives on in the hearts of all who knew and loved him.

Love you, brother.*
