

Charles Marshall Landrum

January 22, 1956 - August 4, 2024

Charles Marshall Landrum was born on January 22, 1956, in Rutherfordton, North Carolina, to Elisha Landrum and Rose Landrum. Charles grew up and loved by a large family of 13 children. He is preceded in death by his brothers Elisha Landrum Jr. and Michael Landrum. He leaves behind his sisters Linda Blanchard, Mary Cofield, Ann Timblin, Mae McCullough, Valerie Allen, and Trina Landrum, as well as his brothers Lamont Kelly, Alvin Landrum, Calvin Landrum, and Aaron Landrum.

Charles met the love of his life and wife, Zatheia Carol, in elementary school in San Bernardino, California. They hit it off and were married for 40 long, loving years. Charles leaves behind his three sons: Charles Landrum Jr., Deverick Landrum, and Marquee Landrum.

Charles was known to be a proud husband and father. He loved music, sports, and working hard, and everyone knew he was in love with his 1974 Cadillac. He worked as a mechanical engineering technician for most of his life. He was an easy-going person, very funny, and humorous. He will be remembered for his big personality and warm laughter. Charles, you will be missed and never forgotten.
