

Clara Irene Jones

September 5, 1934 - November 21, 2019

Clara Irene Gomoluh Kay nee Jones, 85 She was born September 5, 1934, in Tippah Co. Mississippi, to Odell Jones and wife Mary, nee Thrasher. She died peacefully, Nov. 21, 2019 in Las Vegas, Nevada. She was united in marriage to Robert L. Gomoluh, in Montgomery, Alabama, May 1, 1954 and the couple made their home in several Air Force Base Stations of Alabama, Colorado, West Germany, Thailand and Nevada. The marriage was blessed with three children. She was also married to Elmer L. Kay in Las Vegas, Nevada, January 23, 1969. Clara was very proud that she too served in the United States Air Force. She worked many years at the Stardust Hotel and Casino in Las Vegas. She enjoyed sewing, bowling, dancing, listening to music, playing cards, video poker, and watching UNLV Basketball. We will miss her fried chicken, German chocolate cake, pecan pie and many other recipes. She moved from Las Vegas to her childhood home of Walnut about 1997. Three years ago, she returned to Las Vegas to be closer to her immediate family. Daughter-in-law, Niki helped tirelessly advocating and caring for her. Clara is survived by two sons, Robert and Carl with their spouses, two grandchildren, Paul and Mark, and two great grandchildren, sisters Peggy Swindell and Sue McKee and many other relatives and friends. She was preceded in death by her parents, three brothers, one sister, and one son, Michael. Her family wants to thank the Nevada State Veteran's Home in Boulder City and Nathan Adelson Hospice in Las Vegas for caring for her and making her comfortable. The family will hold private services, and her cremated remains will be buried next to her son, Michael, in the Spring of 2020 in Walnut, Mississippi.
