Loving Reflection

Curtis Jordan McCluney Jr. (CJ) was born March 25, 1986, to Rosalyn Collins and Curtis McCluney. Curtis was preceded in death by Maternal Grandparents, Paternal Grandmother, One Maternal uncle, two Paternal Aunts and One Paternal uncle.

Curtis moved to Las Vegas with his mother in June 1996. He graduated from Western High School in June 2004.

Following graduation, Curtis began working at Opportunity Village in the Enable program, and for the past several years after work, he was a client at Nevada Adult Healthcare Center. Curtis loved music and would often serenade the clients and staff at OV and Nevada Adult care during the karaoke hour with one of his favorites “Purple Rain.”

Curtis was a people person, expressing his likes and dislikes lovingly. Curtis touched the hearts of everyone with his joyous spirit and infectious smile. In 2002 Curtis was baptized at Victory Missionary Baptist Church under the leadership of Dr. Robert E. Fowler Sr. He loved attending services where he was one of the most vocal attendees praising and expressing his love for the word and music. Curtis is loved. His spirit will live in our hearts forever.

Curtis "CJ" leaves his loving mother Rosalyn, his father, Curtis, Kansas City. His loving uncle, Michael Collins, Las Vegas, NV, Aunt Lisa G. Simmons (Robert) Las Vegas, uncle, Reginald Collins, Kansas City, Great Aunt Bonnie Benson, Kansas City, three aunts, Millie Calvin, Cynthia McCluney, Brenda McCluney. Three uncles, Howard McCluney, Lawrence McCluney Kansas City, and a host of cousins, other relatives, and friends.
