

Ernestine M Farmer

August 4, 1955 - March 23, 2021

Ernestine Diana Farmer “Teenie” was born in Buffalo, N.Y. to Eddie L. McClendon and Betty J. McClendon. Her siblings are Ruby L. Garvin, Eddie J. She also had taken on several friends that have become sisters, and several young men and women who she became a second mother to. Because of her husband being in the Air Force she lived in numerous places. She graduated from Jones High School in Orlando, FL., and received her Bachelors and Masters degree from Cambridge College in Boston, MA in Education. She found a passion in teaching and had a career in teaching special needs students. She eventually retired in Clayton County, GA, from Babbs Middle School. After retirement she enjoyed spending time with friends and family, reading, traveling, and crocheting.

As We Grow

As we grow up, we learn that even the one person that wasn't supposed to ever let you down probably will. You will have your heart broken probably more than once and it's harder every time. You'll break hearts too, so remember how it felt when yours was broken. You'll fight with your best friend. You'll blame a new love for things an old one did. You'll cry because time is passing too fast, and you'll eventually lose someone you love. So take too many pictures, laugh too much, and love like you've never been hurt; because, every moment you spend upset, is a minute of happiness you'll never get back. Don't be afraid that your life will end, be afraid that it will never begin.

“ My friend, my sister, Heaven has another beautiful angel. My heart is broken because I miss you so much. I truly enjoyed all the conversations that we shared, and the times that we spent at church or just visiting each other. Even now, I want to pick up the phone and call you. How can I say goodbye to such a sweet and caring person? You always saw the good in everyone. And, it was just last Tuesday when we talked on the phone, and I remember the conversation we had before you left. You had such a big heart, and I thank God for placing you in my life. It's so HARD for me to write this without feeling so empty inside. You will always be in my heart. My deepest sympathy to Eugene, Mrs. Betty, and the rest of the family. You are in my thoughts and prayers!

“ I will never forget how devoted she was in our women’s fellowship meetings at Keesler Air Force Base . I don’t believe she missed a meeting. When I lost my grandmother she along with two other women traveled to my hometown and attended her homegoing that meant a lot to me. Eugene thanks for calling me. Keeping you in our prayers...
