

Frank E. Bias

March 10, 1958 - July 10, 2025

Reflections of Life

Frank Edward Bias was born March 10th 1958, to the late Walter Bias Sr and Annie Mae Bias in Tallulah, LA. He attended McCall High School and graduated with the class of 1976. Shortly after, he joined the military for a brief period but ultimately chose to pursue a different path in life.

In 1978, Frank relocated to Las Vegas, where he found his niche working in the casino industry. He was proud of his work and valued the friendships and experiences he gained along the way. Later in life, an unfortunate accident left Frank disabled and unable to continue working, but he faced his challenges with strength and dignity.

Frank was a true family man at heart. He cherished time spent with his loved ones, especially during sports days with his brothers. Sundays filled with football, NBA games and lively Super Bowl parties were among his favorite traditions. He found joy in the simple moments-laughter, conversation, and being surrounded by family.

Frank will be deeply missed by all who knew and loved him. His warmth, loyalty, and love for family leave a lasting legacy.

He was preceded in death by his father Walter Bias Sr, his mother Annie M

Bias, his brothers JW Bias and Henry Bias.

He leaves behind his daughter Shawna Minggia and granddaughter Dasia Porter, his brother's Walter Bias Jr (Teresa Bias), Phillip Bias, Herman Bias and sisters Alma Bias, Yvonne Hampton, Marie Bias, Hattie Johnson and Laura Thomas. And a whole host of nieces and nephews, family and friends.
