Obituary

Geraldine "Hookie" Snyder

Geraldine Snyder loving known as "Hookie" was born on January 31, 1955, to Mabel and Joseph Shelby in Clarksdale, Mississippi. In 1963 the family move to Las Vegas, Nevada where she was educated in the Clark County public school system.

Hookie cherished spending time with her family, she loved reading, dancing, cooking, and especially enjoyed lively gatherings. Her favorite was family cookouts, her food of choice was barbecue ribs, when you fixed her plate she would say "put lots of meat on it!". She was a loving and happy person.

Hookie 's favorite sport was tennis. Nobody could talk to her while tennis on, if you happen to call she would say " I'll call you back" and hang up on you.

Hookie had her own sense of fashion and she loved to dress up. She just really enjoyed creating cherished memories with family and friends.

She is preceded in death by parents Mable and Joseph Shelby; brothers: James Shelby, Elijah Shelby, William Shelby, Morgan Shelby; Robert Shelby, John Leon Shelby, Billy Jo Shelby and John Henry Peer; sisters: Annie Mae Shelby, Ann Shelby, and Laurella Stewart; godmother Gloria Dean Knox, godsister Priscilla Durr and godbrother Thomas (Fats) Durr.

She leaves to cherish her memory; husband O B Patrick; son Mario T. Shelby, grandchildren Mario T. Shelby Jr. and Sequillia Taylor; great grandchildren Kemonne Bradford, Dialah Copeland, Taylor Copeland, Dialan Copeland Jr., godbrother and sister Kevin and Shannon Owens; godchildren Ezarion Fitzgerald, Londyn Guynes and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

Geraldine will be deeply missed by all who knew and loved her. She will always be remembered for his kind heart, loving spirit, and dedication to his family and friends. May she rest in peace.
