

Heather Janet Cervantes

February 11, 1985 - January 4, 2025

It is with heavy hearts that we announce the passing of Heather Janet Cervantes a beloved wife, sister, aunt, and daughter, who left this world on January 4th, 2025 surrounded by the love of her family. Her courage and determination were a testament to her enduring spirit, and she fought with grace until her very last breath.

Heather was born on February 11th, 1985 to Brad and Linda. She brought light and love to all who knew her. A devoted and loving wife to Javier Cervantes, she was also a cherished sister and a doting aunt. Her life was filled with a deep love for her family, friends, and faith.

An avid reader, Heather found joy in the pages of books that allowed her to explore new worlds and ideas. She had a special place in her heart for country music, finding comfort and connection in its lyrics and melodies. Her faith in God was unwavering, serving as her guiding light through life's challenges and triumphs.

Purple, her favorite color, reflected the vibrancy of her spirit. She shared her life with her loyal dogs, who were more than pets—they were family and a source of comfort and joy.

Heather's warmth, kindness, and steadfast determination touched the lives of all who knew her. She will be remembered for her laughter, strength, and endless capacity for love.

A celebration of her life will be held on January 24th, 2025 at Thomas and Jones Funeral Home 2457 N Decatur Blvd Las Vegas, NV 89108 beginning at 11:00 am. Family and friends are invited to come together to honor her memory and share the stories that made her so special.

Her light shines on in the hearts of those who loved her.

“ Heather was the cutest little baby and toddler. I remember her big smile when she first learned to walk. As she grew, she was a bit quiet and shy, but often displayed a sharp wit and sense of humor. She was smart, and always very responsible. She loved her family. She fought the good fight. She will be greatly missed.
