

Jermaine Lamar Avery

June 12, 1980 - August 24, 2025

God gifted Colbert McJoy, Jr. and Nina Gay Avery and the entire McJoy and Avery families with a bundle of joy, Jermaine Lamar Avery, on June 12, 1980 in Las Vegas, Nevada. On August 24, 2025, Jermaine entered eternal rest at the age of 45.

He was a bright light in a dim world. Who brought so much joy to the family. His passing is a great lost to all who knew him. In his forty-five years of life, he was always respectful to his elders. At an early age, Jermaine was baptized at Greater New Jerusalem Baptist Church under the leadership of Rev. James M. Rogers, Sr. He was active with the Youth Ministry. He participated in most of the youth activities such as Bible Study, junior choir, Easter and Christmas programs as well as serving as a junior usher.

However, when he was older, he drifted away from the church and did his own thing. He worked in many fast food jobs including Subway, Port of Subs, Wendy's, 7-11 and various temp services.

Jermaine received his education at Clark County School District. He attended Clyde Cox Elementary School, Swainston Middle School and Cheyenne High School.

He is survived by two sons: Jermaine and Tremaine Avery; one daughter, Jaelynn Avery; Father: Colbert L. McJoy, Jr., Mother: Nina Gay Avery; Grandchildren: Alaia, India and Lai'lani Avery; Grandmother: Catherine Coleman; four brothers: DeMario, Quentin, Antwon and Shontae Avery; one sister: Sharonda McJoy, all of Las Vegas, NV; six uncles, seven aunts and a host of family and friends.

He was preceded in death by sister Diamond Avery; grandparents: Mann and Edna McJoy; three uncles and two aunts.
