October 27, 1970 - May 5, 2026

Life

Life is but a stopping place,
a pause in what's to be,
a resting place along the road
to sweet eternity.

We all have different journeys,
different paths along the way.

We all were meant to learn some things,
but never meant to stay...

Our destination is a place
far greater than we know.

For some, the journey quicker,
for some the journey's slow.

And when the journey finally ends,
we'll claim a great reward,
and find everlasting peace,
together with the Lord.

“ I knew Joe as he worked for another DME company but we would constantly see each other at the hospitals and just shoot the breeze and laugh about work related stuff. Worked around him for about 6 years and he always was upbeat and in a great mood. Real solid dude. Thanks for all the conversations and game! Rest up!

“ Joe was a great part of our lives for many years, he was always smiling and giving his opinions, Joe was a great son-in-law, I remember when he surprised me with a very nice microwave on Christmas Day and he was grinning from ear to ear, he was a great dad, G Pop and husband to my daughter Lacey, we love you for being the man you were, and you will truly be missed.

“ He was truly one of a kind — the kind of person who could make you laugh with his comments and have you hanging onto every word about life growing up on the west side. He was a loving husband, father, brother, and proud Gpop who loved his grand kids. For a good portion of my life, he was also an important father figure to me, and I will always be grateful for the love, guidance, and memories he gave so freely. He will be deeply missed. Rest in Heaven Slay💙👍

“ I worked with Joe since 2019, every time we crossed paths he always said hi and was a friendly face. If it had been a few days we would always joke about where the other had been, and he always made me smile. I will miss seeing him around the office as I return back to work

“ I worked with Joe at the Henderson Lincare office when it was open back in the day & then worked with him at Preferred Homecare for the last almost 12 years. He always had a smile on his face & asked me how I was doing whenever I saw him. He will be greatly missed by all of his Preferred Homecare family!

RIP JOE 💔

“ I can't put into words how Heartbroken 📍 I am right now we became friends in 1978 the very first day you moved on Silver dollar st and the rest is history by 1980 our friendship was no longer a friendship we became Brothers your mom became my mom and my mom became your mom. Thank you my best friend my brother for all the wonderful memories we created I will cherish them till the day comes that we can sit down and reminisce once again. If I could have taken away your pain you know without a doubt I would have. I never thought I'd be the one faced with having to say (Goodbye) until the day comes we're together again Spread your wings and fly 🕊 high my brother you are no longer in pain.

“ To my best friend, my brother, “The Slay”—

We were more than friends. We were brothers from childhood. Our bond started before we were even born, because his mother and my mother were best friends too. His family and my family were tightly bound and had known each other for many years. We grew up like family, and he was the first person that I played with. Through all the years, we never had one argument or fight.

Life separated us at times, but our friendship never changed. Even after I moved away and life took us down different roads, we always stayed connected. He understood my struggles, my pain, and the things I went through in life, and I understood his. Through it all, we remained loyal, loving, and real with one another.

I thank God that before he left this world on May 5, 2026, He allowed us one more chance to see each other. We laughed, hugged, talked, and shared love like brothers always do. That memory will stay in my heart forever.

We prayed together, talked about God together, and I truly believe his spirit knew there was a higher power watching over him. I believe God makes no mistakes, and I trust His plan even when it hurts.

Now he is reunited with his loved ones and family, and I know they welcomed him home with love.

He will always be my brother, and I will love him forever.

*Straight from the heart,
His best friend,

“ One of my favorite stories is when Joe started talking about this dog that lived with him. Joe always said he couldn't roam around the house; he had to stay in his room for fear of the dog. One day at work Joe showed me a picture where the dog ate half the door trying to get to him. I can only imagine the fear he had watching a dog slowly eat his way into the room. I laughed out when Joe showed me the pictures of the door. ”
