

Lisa Marie Vernon

April 24, 1985 - October 21, 2025

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside still waters. He restoreth my soul; He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake; Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me; Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; Thou anointest my head with oil, my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the Lord, forever.

- Psalm 23

“ For the little amount of time spent knowing each other, felt like we've known each other for a lifetime. Meeting you, I was introduced to the warmth and energy you bring to every room you were present. Always making people smile through cracking jokes or when caring for family & friends. You will be dearly missed.

“ Dear Family and Friends,

As we gather here today to remember and celebrate the life of our beloved Lisa, a daughter, sister, aunt, cousin, a cherished family member, I want to take a moment to reflect on the love, joy, and light she brought into our lives. In times like these, it's natural to feel a profound sense of loss and sadness. Yet, as we navigate through our grief, let us also embrace the beautiful memories that Lisa has left with us.

In the book of Ecclesiastes, we are reminded that "To everything, there is a season, and a time for every matter under heaven" (Ecclesiastes 3:1). Though we may not fully understand the timing of her departure, we can trust that God has a greater plan and purpose. Lisa has transitioned to a place of peace, free from pain and suffering, where her spirit shines brightly among the angels.

Let us take comfort in knowing that she is now in the presence of our Lord, experiencing the eternal grace and love that we all long for. As we sing the words of "Amazing Grace," let us remember that her life was a testament to God's grace. The impact she made on each of us is a reflection of that grace—her kindness, laughter, and unwavering support will forever resonate in our hearts.

As we mourn, let us also celebrate the remarkable life she lived. Think of the moments filled with joy, the laughter shared, and the love she so freely gave. Lisa was a beacon of light, and her legacy is one of love, compassion, and strength. Each of us carries a piece of her spirit within us, and it is our duty to honor her memory by continuing to spread that love and kindness in our own lives.

In Philippians 4:7, we are reminded, "And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus." May this peace be with each of us as we navigate through our grief, and may we find solace in the knowledge that Lisa is in a better place.

Today, let us not only mourn her loss but also celebrate the wonderful person she was. Let us cherish the memories and the love we shared. Together, we can honor her legacy by living our lives with the same passion and grace she exemplified.

As we look toward the future, remember that the sun will shine tomorrow, a promise from the Lord that brighter.

Love, Cousin Godfrey Hyde

“ I'm still trying to face the world without you baby sis. I miss you so much my heart broken 💔. It was and is an honor being your big sister and watching you grow up into a beautiful intelligent strong woman made my heart filled with joy and happiness. I loved the way you were with all your nieces, nephews and siblings showing and giving us unconditional love. You will forever be in my heart. May you rest in peace 🙏
