

Lonnie Mack Wiley Jr.

February 10, 1961 - May 8, 2020

Lonnie Mack Wiley, Jr. was born February 10, 1961 to Lonnie Mack Wiley and Myrtle Wiley Jones in Las Vegas, NV.

“Spoon” or “June” as most of us knew him, grew up here in Las Vegas. He attended Louis Craig Elementary School, Cashman Junior High School and would later graduate from Valley High School. “June” loved sports. He played Pop Warner football, basketball and even tried his hand at baseball. He played ball from 7th grade through to college. While attending Valley High School “Spoon” made the varsity football team and basketball team while yet still a Junior. On the basketball team he set up as a point guard and on the football team he was a defensive back. He wouldn’t back down for anything. He was known as one tough ball player. One of the best safeties during his time. “Spoon” earned a scholarship to Pine Bluff, AR and attended Texas A&I. As life would have it, “June” suffered his share of challenges, but God would allow him to come full circle before leaving this earth.

While still being challenged he was able to come back and become a loving caring, uncle, brother, son and dad. He was a very giving person. He was able to leave group homes after group homes to establish his own apartment. He managed to make sure that each of his great nieces and nephews received a gift from him each and every Christmas.

“June” accepted Jesus Christ as his personal savior at an early age. He recently began fellowshiping with New Jerusalem, the church where he was baptized.

He was preceded in death by his father Lonnie Mack Wiley, Sr., his step father Roosevelt Holyfield, and his two of his brothers Charles Williams and Stanley Wiley.

He leaves to cherish is memory, his mother Myrtle Wiley Jones of Tallulah, LA, his sons Lonnie Mack Wiley, III and Dwayne Jones, two grandchildren Ke'mon Mack Wiley and Amari Jones, seven siblings, Sam Wiley (Renee') Joanne Wiley, Cedric Jones, (Teresa), Delores Jones (Erica), Sheila Wiley (Billy Ray), Martha Ann Wiley, Jacqueline Johnson, all of Las Vegas and a host of other relatives
