Little Rose

I would rather have a little rose from the garden of a friend, than have the choicest flowers when my stay on earth shall end.

I would rather have the kindest words and a smile that I can see, than flattery when my heart is still and this life ceased to be.

I would rather have a loving smile from the friends I know are true, than tears shed around my casket when the world I bid adieu.

“ When we moved to Henderson I was around 6 years old and somehow I became Cindy's shadow, never mind that she was a teenager and the last thing she needed was a bratty kid tagging along...she took me everywhere! We lost touch over the years, but she remained my favorite cousin. Through a twist of fate or destiny, we found each other through Facebook. We talked for hours on the phone and I discovered she kept me close because she saw how much I needed her! I love you Cindy and you will never be forgotten as long as I live.

“ I knew this beautiful, independent soul as Cindy. She had a great smile and a mischievous twinkle in her eyes. She shared her wry sense of humor, showed loyalty and love for family, and gave tender-hearted care and affection to her beloved pets. Angel was her constant companion and source of comfort to her. I miss you, Cindy. Love, Lisa
