

May Lucinda Sciascia

September 7, 1941 - December 11, 2025

May was born in Lackawanna, NY and was an elementary school teacher in Rochester, NY for over 30 years before retiring to Las Vegas, NV. May enjoyed reading, doing crossword puzzles, playing Bingo and spending time with their dogs Tiger and Cooper. She was a devoted wife to her husband Frank for over 50 years.

To Those I Love & Leave Behind When I am gone, release me, let me go, I have so many things to see and do, Please don't tie yourself to me with tears, Be thankful for our beautiful years.

I gave you my love. You can only guess How much you gave to me in happiness... I thank you for the love you each have shown, But now it's time I traveled on alone.

So grieve a while for me, if grieve you must, Then let your grief be comforted by trust. It's only for a time that we must part, So bless the memories within your heart.

I won't be far away, for life goes on. So, If you need me, call and I will come.

Though you can't see or touch me, I'll be near. And if you listen with your heart, you'll hear All my love around you soft and clear,

Then, when you must come this way alone, I'll greet you with a smile, and say "Welcome Home!" --Therese Marie Horn
