

Michael Dwayne Holmes

July 17, 1955 - December 29, 2022

Michael Dwayne Holmes was born on July 17, 1955 to Richard Holmes, Sr. and Azerlene Holmes in Los Angeles, California. Michael was one of seven children in this beautiful family and raised in Las Vegas, Nevada.

Michael was a passionate person. He often expressed his depth of love and pride in us all. Michael was a genuine man who had never met a stranger; he really enjoyed the special moments of life. His smile was contagious, his laughter warm, funny sayings and dramatic gestures was the essence of who he was. Michael loved music from the 70's, jazz, traveling and cooking. His greatest pride was being the presence of his family. He spoke powerful words of destiny to his grandchildren and encouraged his own children to find faith and enjoyment out of life! None were quite ready for his departure; however, we are all secure in knowing that he's healed, restored and free.

Michael was preceded in death by his mother, Azerlene Holmes; father, Richard Holmes, Sr.; brother, Richard Holmes, Jr.; and son, Terrell Holmes. Michael Holmes went home to be with the Lord on Thursday, December 29, 2022 at the age of 67. He leaves to cherish his memories: his spouse, Lisa Holmes; three children, Tanjier Holmes, Desmond and wife Ariyaporn "Eye" Holmes, Shawntaviya and husband Nicholas Davis; ten grandchildren, Brandon-Michael Rossman, Billy Johnson, Dane Jackson, Cole Johnson, Kadedra Holmes, Jordan Assenco, Trinity Holmes, Kira Holmes, Kaleb Holmes and Tyler Holmes; five siblings, Sandra Timmons, Linda Harvey, Larris Holmes, Earl Holmes and Ricky Holmes. Yet I still belong to you; you are holding my right hand. You will keep on guiding me with your counsel, leading me to a glorious destiny. Whom have I in heaven but you? I desire you more than anything on earth. My health may fail and my spirit may grow weak, but God remains the strength of my heart; he is mine forever.
