Miss Me, But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me I want no rites in a gloom-filled room, why cry for a soul set free? Miss me a little but not too long, and not with your head bowed low, remember the love that we once shared.

Miss me . . . but let me go. For this is a journey that we all must take, and each must go alone. It's all a part of the master plan a step on the road to home. When you are lonely and sick of heart, go to the friends we know, and bury your sorrow in doing good deeds, miss me . . . but let me go.

“ I would like to send my condolences to the family. God is always present when we as humans cannot be. He is a peace that surpasses understanding. May his love, strength, and joy overwhelm you all during this time of bereavement.

“ My sincere condolences for the family. I met Ora in Fayetteville, NC many years ago and I enjoyed spending time with her when she lived with her sister Mary Jean Cunningham. I enjoyed being in her company. I gleaned for her words of wisdom. I love the family. I met many of the family in Las Vegas at the family reunion.

“ Ora was my oldest sister and my parents oldest child. I loved her very much. I treasured the time we had together as siblings. I stayed with her growing up and later in life she lived with my husband and me. She loved the Lord with all her heart. I believe with all my heart that she is in that special resting place that God has prepared for those who love Him. Mary Jean and Billy Cunningham
