

Pamela Kaye Meyer

December 19, 1963 - January 10, 2025

There is a time for everything, and a season for every activity under the heavens:
a time to be born and a time to die,
a time to plant and a time to uproot,
a time to kill and a time to heal,
a time to tear down and a time to build,
a time to weep and a time to laugh,
a time to mourn and a time to dance,
a time to scatter stones and a time to gather them, a time to embrace and a time to refrain from embracing,
a time to search and a time to give up,
a time to keep and a time to throw away,
a time to tear and a time to mend,
a time to be silent and a time to speak,
a time to love and a time to hate,
a time for war and a time for peace.

Ecclesiastes 3:1-8

Thank you Pam for being my friend. I remember seeing you at SNS. I did not know you stopped coming because you were ill. I'm so glad I got to meet you and dance with you both times. You came with Sherry to The Hideaway. I was honored to come to your house and put the tables together. I miss our texting but I understood your condition. God has you now and no more pain. Enjoy your heavenly body and dance for the Lord.

*Pam I love you so much and I'm going to miss our late night insomnia talks. I will never forget how strong you were and how positive you were throughout the whole process. I wanted to be there with you and knew there wasn't a way so I sent you a bunny in place of me so that when you needed a hug you could hug the bunny and it would be like hugging me. I will never forget you I love you so much and I'll miss you but I will keep your memory alive. I love you Pam.

“ Mom you were an amazing person and always tried to stay cheerful in your fight. I will miss you and forever keep you in my heart and prayers. You only get one mom and heaven gained one of their strongest warriors to join them. I am happy she will is no longer in pain and can dance in her cowboy boots again! You were so loved and you will always be everything perfect to me. God bless you mom and may you fly with the angels in the sky!

“ I'm so saddened, but some what relieved Pam was such a fighter & a Trooper.. She is with the "" LORD"" Now and knowing that she's not suffering anymore..

My wife and I will miss her terribly, we were always by her side in and out of the Hospital, going back and forth for testing... She was my wife's bestie since Highschool and later I became her mechanic and took care of the families vehicles up till her passing...

To the rest of the family that she leaves behind, Bonnie, Cory, Brittany, Warren, Ryder her Grandson, & Terry her Sister...

If at anytime, any of you need anything we will be available 24/7 to talk with you or text. May GOD" Bless you all
