

Patricia Jenette Pablo

December 3, 1970 - July 21, 2018

Patricia Pablo age 47 of Summerlin, passed away on July 21, 2018, after a yearlong battle with Breast, Bone, and Brain cancer. She was born in 1970, in Honolulu, Hawaii. She is a graduate of Kamehameha-Kapalama School, class of 1988. She attended the University of Hawaii at Manoa, where she met Don Patrick Pablo and was married in the Laie Hawaii Temple. Tricia and Don moved to Michigan, after Don graduated from UH, and then finally made their home in Las Vegas, Nevada. She worked throughout her married life where she finally made her career at UNLV in the Math Department as the Administrative Assistant IV. One of her accomplishments, which she finally achieved was getting her Bachelor's Degree at UNLV and minoring in 3 languages. Her biggest joys besides her eternal companion Don, are their children, Dylan, Jayson, and Kyla. Tricia has done many things in her lifetime, she was always full of life, made many friends along the way and will be sorely missed. Her greatest legacy she is leaving behind is her family and the love she gave to them unconditionally. She has been preceded in death by her parents, Harry Jenette, Marvellae Jenette (nee Wilhelm), her sister, Katherine Jenette, her second hanai dad, Holbrook DuPont and her grandparents. She is survived by her husband, Don, her three children, Dylan, Jayson, Kyla, her siblings, Michele Nakayama (Craig), Edward Jenette (Alena Yuen), Lynne Oliver (Robert), Cecilia U. Pugay, her hanai brothers Dwight DuPont (U'ilani), Doug DuPont (Holly), her mother in law, Betsy Espinoza, her father in law, Angel Pablo (Noriko), her second hanai mom, Amanda DuPont, Nephews, Ross Nakayama (Manami), Ian Nakayama (Chiaki), Justin Oliver, CJ Buenconsejo (Shana), Caleb Buenconsejo. Nieces, Kari Akaka (Pakela), Sara Nielsen (Cody), Kellien Oliver, Lyndsey Oliver (Ruben), Angelica Buenconsejo, Christiana Buenconsejo, Anela Pablo. 4 grandnephews and 3 grandnieces.