“ I remember going to visit Paulette in the 70's with the homegirls. We would laugh and joke and eat. I thank her and her Mother and Father letting us come over and hang out. She is with God now.

It's so hard and unbelievable to know a dear childhood friend had transition to be present with GOD.

Priceless precious memories to cherish. We were the neighborhood rascals to name a few- Natalie, Karen, Kathy, Anita, Johanna & Sharon as we had so much fun growing up. Paulette, you was always never apart from each and everyone of us in our heart. You will be missed.

To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven:

Rest now our Dear Friend! Rest upon Jesus Christ you're in his hands now. 🙏
