

Raheem M. McElrathBey

April 24, 1963 - July 15, 2018

Raheem Muhammad McElrathBey was born on April 24, 1963 to Frankwell McElrathBey (Frank) and Josie Beatrice Bey (“Jo B”) in Chicago, IL. Raheem attended Fenger High School in Chicago IL, and was a proud graduate of Cass Job Corps Civilian Conservation Center in Ozark Arkansas. Raheem moved to Las Vegas and worked at the Tropicana Hotel and Casino for many years. Raheem loved his family and friends and he showed his love with small acts of kindness, larger acts of sacrifice & fierce devotion. He believed that family always came first. He valued relationships, kindness, generosity, hard work and learning. Raheem’s mantra throughout his life when faced with challenging and hard times was “where there’s a Bey, there’s a way”. Raheem was preceded in death by his mother Jo B, his father Frank, his Grandmother Christine Jenkins, Aunt Teddy, Uncle Mike (3) brothers, Lawrence, Abdullah, and Ramon. He is survived by his Ex-wife Tonya McElrathBey, Sons Ramon and Cornelius and Fahmarr. Daughters Tanea, Sabra and Brittany. Grandchildren, Ramon, Trumone, Tyquan, T’Erica, Ge’Niya, Travian, Tayvion and Quevon. Sisters, Eunice, Sylvia, and Tasha. Aunts Cheryl, Cheri, Sandra, Debra and Johnnie Mae. Uncles Wiley and Gus. Cousins Trixie, Mander, Felicia, Renae, Tony, and Neicy. Nephews Vincent, Lorenzo, Julius, Raheem, Danny, Nathan and Loren. Nieces, Natasha, Alexis, Unice, Josie, Precious, Ariel, Krystal, and Porsche. (9) Great-nieces and (3) Great nephews. Special friend Maria Navarro, and a host of other family and friends
