

Rosemary Blackwell-Stuart

December 17, 1953 - February 23, 2023

Rosemary Blackwell-Stuart entered this world as the first-born child of Billy Blackwell and Ollie Mae Keyes-Blackwell on December 17, 1953, in Morton, Mississippi.

She moved with her parents to Las Vegas in 1954. She attended Westside School during her elementary years, Jim Bridger Junior High School and she attended Las Vegas High School as well as Rancho High School.

Rosemary was a cocktail waitress at the Mint Hotel for many years. She later became a pharmacy technician for Sav-On Drugs and several years later, she was employed with Southwest Medical Associates.

Rosemary was known for her bubbly personality, beautiful, infectious smile, and a heart of gold. She loved purple; butterflies and she absolutely adored her family. Rosemary was a genuine, loving person and there is nothing she would not do for those she loved and for those in need. On December 1, 1969, she gave birth to the Love of Her life, her baby boy, Jeffrey.

Rosemary received Christ as an adult and began attending Second Baptist Church.

Rosemary overcame many challenges and struggles over the course of her life and became a living testimony and an overcomer. During her later years, her deepest desire was to walk with Christ and live a life of peace.

Preceding her in death: father, Billy Blackwell and maternal grandmother, Rosie Williams.

She leaves to cherish her loving memory: son, Jeffrey Hill; mother, Ollie Mae Hayes; sister, Gwen Dillard; Brother Jeffrey Keyes (Teresa); sister, Tammy Hayes; niece Tara Bennett and a host of relatives and special friends.
