Shannon was born September 21, 1977 to Ernest and Jewelline Brooks in Las Vegas, Nevada. Shannon was the fourth of ten siblings.

Shannon was baptized at an early age and will be known for her kind tender heart and tears.

Shannon completed her education with the Clark County School District, graduating from E. W. Clark High School in 1995. During her time at Clark High School she joined the Drama Department. Shannon loved to sing and had a melodious voice, in which, she brought to the stage of Clark High School on many occasions. “ Shannon this is a big pill to swallow.
This feels unreal. You are definitely one of a kind. I have so many good memories of you and so many kind words to say.

The memory that's standing out the most today (while I'm at work) will be when you helped us out for Mother's Day as the cashier. Nedra told me how start you are but seeing it for myself was very impressive. You showed up while in pain, even though you were given the opportunity to leave you said, " No, I want to go back to work and this will be my test to see if I can work the World Poker Tournament". You are strong and determined!!
Geesh.

You definitely stand out as God sent! I don't know what I would have done without ...and who knew you spoke Spanish!
On Halloween I asked you, " what's your costume"? You said, " an Uber Mom" lol.

The love you have for your family will last a lifetime.

At the Brooks family gathering, you took the mic and expressed how much you loved and appreciate everyone. Which was incredible.

I've known you for 23 years and I miss you.

You use too call me sister, and I felt genuine love from your heart.
You are missed.
