“ Sandy as we called him, was a former co-worker at the Stardust with Mackie. My Mom was from Fordyce, so she knew his family in Arkansas. He was a Deacon at our church, Pentecostal Temple. He also helped with arrangements of several family members. He was a good man, a quiet spoken man, and a good friend. He will be greatly missed. Our prayers and condolences go to his family, many of whom are family friends as well. God will see you thru.
