I Wonder, O I Wonder

"I wonder, O I wonder, where the little faces go,
That come and smile and stay awhile, and pass like flakes of snow -

The dear, wee baby faces that the world has never known,

But mothers hide, so tender-eyed deep in their hearts alone.

I love to think that somewhere, in the country
we call heaven,

The land most fair of anywhere will unto them be given.

A land of little faces - very little, very fair -

And every one shall know her own and cleave unto it there."
