THE OBITUARY

THE LIFE OF STEVE BARNETT

SUNRISE MAY 14, 1966 - SUNSET JUNE 12, 2025

Steve was born May 14, 1966 in Las Vegas, Nevada Mildred McGowan-Perry, and Henry Barnett. He attended Bonanza High School in Las Vegas, NV, and Lakeside High School in Lake Village, AR, where he was part of the basketball team. He loved his family dearly, and enjoyed spending time with them. His younger siblings remember him walking them to school every day, to make sure they got there safely; holding their hands all the way.

He worked different jobs, once at a catfish farm, and a cotton gin in Arkansas. He was a “Mama’s Boy” that loved to laugh and have fun. He enjoyed playing games, and was avid at dominoes, spades, and bingo. He absolutely loved his family, and would do anything for them. His grandchildren were his pride and joy.

Steve was preceded in death by his father Henry Barnett, and his brother Thomas Brown.

Steve Leaves to cherish his memory: His mother Mildred Perry, and step-father John Perry of Montrose, Arkansas, 3 sisters Wadean Barnett of Montrose, Arkansas; Jacqueline Barnett(Anthony Bagley) of Las Vegas, Nevada; and Louise Rodgers(Patrick)of Las Vegas, Nevada; 2 brothers David Barnett (Melanie Dowd) of Las Vegas, Nevada; and Henry Easley of Ohio,

2 daughters Chiante Barnett of Las Vegas, Nevada; and Quinta Robinson(Charles) of Las Vegas, Nevada; 3 sons Steven Barnett(Jolene) of Las Vegas, Nevada; Rayvon Barnett(LaTasha) of Las Vegas, Nevada; and Shoshone Barnett(Stephanie) of Bullhead City, Arizona; 28 grandchildren, 2 great grandchildren, and a host of cousins, nieces, nephews, and friends
