

Susan Kay Najar

January 28, 1962 - November 3, 2024

Susan Kay Najar January 28th 1962, 62 years young passed on November 3rd, 2024 in Las Vegas Nevada.

She was born in Clio, Michigan in 1962 to William Langdon & Arlene Wright, the youngest child of five.

The youngest, full of curiosity about barefoot fishing with her siblings, somehow had the best of luck catching bluegill.

Susan attended Clio High School, worked at Burger King as Supervisor in Flint then moved to Grand Rapids.

While working in Grand Rapids, Older sister introduced Michael Najar to Susan & was True Love at first sight.

Susan & Michael celebrated this year of 39 beautiful years of marriage.

Susan loved bringing friends & family together with homemade food from her mothers favorite recipes.

Her love for Michigan Sports: Lions - Michigan State - Red Wings was a requirement during food prepping.

She always had the joy of making others laugh & storytelling of yester years. Throughout all the years of her life she was always the bright light to others & always kept deep connections with friends & family.

Susan was preceded in death: Daughter - Sister - Mother - Best friend

Michael Najar Sr (Husband (64)), Mike Najar Jr (oldest son(34)), Brendan Najar (middle son(30)), Austin Najar (youngest son(28)), Shelby Najar (daughter in law (33)).

Oldest to youngest siblings: Gary Langdon(79) & Mary Langdon, David Langdon(74) & Ava Langdon, Ann Erhardt(75) & Bob Erhardt, Alan Langdon(68)& Jan Langdon

"Beloved, I see you. Every joy, every pain, every struggle
I am with you through it all. My love for you is steadfast and unshakable.
When you feel weary, know that I am here to carry you.
When you feel lost, trust that I am guiding your steps.
You are cherished beyond measure, chosen and called by name.
Lean on me, and let go of the burdens you were never meant to bear alone.
Remember, I will never leave you nor forsake you.
I have a purpose for you that surpasses what you see now.
Have faith, and know that I am working all things for your good.
Keep walking in love, for you are a light in this world.
Trust me—I am making all things new."

“ We loved Susan, a very sweet neighbor girl who grew up with our sons in Clio on Jennings Rd. Just like one of our own. And her Mom, Arlene, became one of my best friends (& Neighbor). Our prayers are with you all as you make preparations for her Homegoing to Jesus, and may God our Heavenly Father just comfort all of you. Much too young to go, but God knows what’s best for each of us. She trusted Him completely. She sure hid her pain well, never even mentioned it~~what a ‘trooper’. I will miss her terribly online, which is how we reconnected a few years ago & ‘talked’ every day. We had 3 sons, also. I will miss her Friday  flowers  flowers
