In Loving Memory of
Susie “Sue” Bea Barlow

Sunrise: February 12, 1954 | Sunset: May 4, 2025

Susie “Sue” Bea Barlow was born on February 12, 1954, in Tallulah, Louisiana. She was the eleventh child of Nathaniel Barlow Sr. and Ira Lee Barlow, both of whom preceded her in death.

At an early age, Sue accepted Christ and was baptized at Antioch Missionary Baptist Church in Tallulah, LA. She received her education at Reuben McCall Senior High School before relocating to Las Vegas, Nevada at the age of 17.

Sue was a devoted mother to four children: LaGanza Barlow, Laketa Barlow, Alfreda Barlow— all of Las Vegas, NV—and LaTasha Barlow Prewitt of Ellenwood, GA. She took pride in raising her children and building a life full of love and connection.

Las Vegas became home, where Sue’s radiant personality and warm spirit touched many, especially fellow Tallulah natives who crossed her path. Known for her bright smile and lively presence, Sue had a no-nonsense attitude, always speaking her truth with sincerity and conviction. Whether the conversation was lighthearted or deeply personal, Sue was someone you could talk to about anything.

She loved to cook and took great joy in feeding and being surrounded by family. Her honesty, spirited debates, and contagious energy left a lasting impression on all who knew her.

Sue leaves behind a legacy of love and cherished memories. In addition to her children, she is survived by her beloved grandchildren: LaGanza Jr., Earlisha, LaKeedra, Derrick, Te'Yon, Azaria, Akeelah, DeArie, Adrianna; seven great-grandchildren; and her siblings: Nellie Hayes, Nathaniel Barlow Jr., James Barlow, Charles Barlow, and Mattie Gilliam, Emma Calvin. She is also reunited in eternity with seven siblings who preceded her in death.

She will be deeply missed by a host of nieces, nephews, extended family, and friends who loved her dearly.
