Teresa Frazier was born to Howard Frazier and Susie Frazier on July 13, 1960 in Columbus, Georgia. She graduated from High School in 1979. She worked in Housekeeping. Teresa was a member of the True Love Missionary Baptist Church, joining under the pastorate of the late Reverend I. W. Wilson.

Teresa was a faithful member of True Love MBC and was a regular student in Sunday School and Bible Study. She enjoyed singing in the Mass Choir and dancing with Adult Praise Dance Ministry, as well. She is preceded in death by her father Howard Frazier, mother Susie Frazier, stepmother Won Cho Frazier, and sister Ada McConnell.

Holden, Imaya Anderson, Inosia Irome, Zo'rea Carter and Alani Frazier; one aunt: Ramona Bell; one niece: Juakila McConnell; one nephew: Larz McConnell; and a host of friends, loved ones, church family, and Tiger, her cat.
