☁️ “Lived on Terry’s Time”

He never rushed, he never ran,
Terry had his own good plan.
The world could spin, the clocks could chime—
But he just lived on Terry’s time.

He’d lend a hand, he’d crack a joke,
He’d lift you up with words he spoke.
A heart so big, a will so strong,
He made us feel we all belonged.

Through stubborn storms, he stood his ground,
With faith in God that wrapped around.
And when his work on Earth was through,
The Lord said, “Terry, I’ve waited for you.”

Now Heaven’s gates are open wide,
He’s flying high, so full of pride.
No ticking clock, no earthly climb—
He’s home at last, on Terry’s time.
