Reflections of Life

Timothy Lamar Alston Sr. was born on June 20, 1983 to the proud parents of Marvin Sr. and Patricia Alston. He was born in Las Vegas, NV where he attended Cheyenne High School. After graduating he attended Culinary School, upon completion he had several jobs, Smith's in the bakery department, security, and several Cannabis Stores until his health failed. He was the father of Timothy Lamar Alston Jr. who was raised by the late Marvin Sr and Patricia Alston to which he contributed in the raising of his son.

Timothy has a big heart, however you had to know to understand him and love he was. He enjoyed family time, cooking and photography. He was baptized by the late Pastor Earl Henry of the New Paradise Missionary Baptist Church. His nickname to both family and friends was Tim or Pimotell. He had a million dollar smile and loved to joke around.

He leaves behind his siblings Dewayne James Holdin, Tracey Holden, Marvin Jr., Crystal Holden (Brandon), Mario Alston and Glenise Alston, and Aretha Holden. He also leave behind a host of nieces, nephews, seven aunts, 2 uncles, and cousins.

A Special thanks to his extended family, his Aunt Debra McDowell, Auntie Vera, Lala Conway (extended daughter) who he loved dearly, Tayana McDowell (extended niece), Damario (extended son), Jimmie Williams (extended brother), and Letoya Fletcher.

Special Thanks to and love shown from his church family
