

Verdie Mae Foreman

April 11, 1932 - November 12, 2022

Obituary

Born to Ray Charles Connor and Elnora Connor, on April 11, 1932, Verdie Mae (Connor) Foreman, was the second oldest of 11 children. Her birthplace was Indianahoma, Oklahoma.

Verdie met and married Morris Morton in 1950, and they had four daughters together Jacqueline, Julie, Jeannette, and Jasmine, however, their marriage was short lived.

In 1955, Verdie married Louis Foreman on September 13. Nine more children were added to the family, and they raised all 13 of them together, five sons and eight daughters. They also helped to raise her four younger sisters.

By that time, the family lived in Phoenix, Arizona, and in 1963 they moved from Phoenix, Arizona to Las Vegas, Nevada.

Even though working outside of the home most of the time, Verdie was always a devoted mother and homemaker. Her home was always immaculate, her cupboards were always well stocked with food, and you were always assured of getting a good home-cooked meal at her home.

She stood by her children through their successes as well as their failures, shared their laughter as well as their tears, offered advice when asked for, gave encouragement when needed, and emotional support when required.

Verdie accepted Christ into her life at a young age and made sure that her children attended church and knew Christ. Upon her passing, Mrs. Foreman was a member of New Creation Outreach Ministries.

Verdie was preceded in death by her husband of 47 years, Louis Foreman, daughter, Jeannette Johnson, sons, Louis Eugene, Calvin, and Frederick.

Verdie leaves to mourn her passing daughters, Jacqueline Bailey, Julie Chamberlain (Carl), Jasmine Morton, Jewelline Brooks (Ernest), Dianna

Jones, Patricia Gonzalez Cruz, Lucretia Oakley, sons, Kevin Foreman, and Jamie Foreman (Rhonda), sisters, Deborah Fennell and Ellen Allen, and brother, Eddie Connor, (Shirley), a host of grandchildren, great grandchildren, and many friends.
