

Venera Crosby

February 7, 1942 - February 1, 2024

Venera Mae Field Crosby "Nell Mae" was born February 7, 1942, in Emerson, Arkansas to Earlie Fields and Arnergia Glover (Allen). Together had two children with Venera being the oldest of two, in total Venera was the second oldest of 19 siblings.

Venera came to Las Vegas in 1947 at the age of 5, where she resided the remainder of her life. She attended historic Westside School, married the father of her children, then later remarried at the age of 28.

Venera was the matriarch of the family, she raised five of her grandchildren, Keith, Calvin, Yasmin, Taurean and Tybereous, and assisted in raising her grandson Tyrone.

She was a hard working woman. Worked 42 years, 12 years at the Stardust Hotel and Casino and 30 years at the Royal Hotel, where she met her closest friends. She was a kind hearted, joyous and loving free spirited human with a heart of gold. She loved being around family and having a good time dancing joking and listening to music. She was the Ace of Spades and Miss Tell It Life It Is winning all games with her spades partner. She accepted Christ at an early age.

Venera gained her wings on February 1, 2024. Preceding her in death, one daughter, Damita Jo Biddle, her mother, Arnethia Allen (Holbert), her father, Earlie Fields, Wanda Lou, Shirley, Deborah, Claudie, Gloria, Roses Curtis, Donnie, Donald, Sherrie, and her great-niece, Justise.
