

Virginia Mae Hall

September 2, 1960 - May 15, 2017

Virginia Mae Hall (Kate) was born in Sondheimer, Louisiana on September 2, 1960 to the late Jesse Goodman and Viola Hall-Anderson. With her children by her side, she departed this life May 15, 2017 in Las Vegas, Nevada. She was common law married to Cleotha Crockett for 37 years. She worked as a hair braider and in schools for 17 years. She enjoyed her responsibilities as the matriarch and family member as well as writing poetry, dancing, and playing cards. She was also actively involved in parent associations throughout her children's schooling. She gave her life to the Lord at a young age as a member of the St. James Baptist Church in Sondheimer, Louisiana. She was a miracle of life, full of hope, happiness, and most of all love. She leaves behind her legacy of three daughters: Markieta Crockett-Hall and China Crockett-Hall of Las Vegas, Nevada, and Sequoia Crockett-Hall of Oakland, California; seven grandboys: Johnathan Crockett, Jahnathan Crockett, Brian Johnson, Kylon Johnson, Kylob Johnson, Austin Snead all of Las Vegas, Nevada and Xavier Garrett of Oakland, California; five brothers: McKinley Hall and Jesse Hall of Tallulah, Louisiana, Robert Hall, Sr. of Little Rock, Arkansas, and Curtis Hall and Martin Hall of Las Vegas, Nevada; two sisters: Maxine Killensworth of Vicksburg, Mississippi and Audrey Stevens of Salinas, California; three sisters-in-law: Brenda Whitney and Chartha Crockett of Tallulah, Louisiana and Virginia Crockett of Las Vegas, Nevada; one brother-in-law: Clarence Crockett; one aunt: Margaret Richardson of Las Vegas, Nevada; and a Host of nieces, nephews, and cousins