

Zachariah Alexander Brown

September 8, 2012 - June 15, 2021

Memory of Me

I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one. I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles when life is done. I'd like to leave an echo whispering softly down the ways, of happy times and laughing times, and bright and sunny days. I'd like the tears of those who grieve, to dry before the sun, with all of the happy memories that I leave when my life is done.

“ Zachariah and Austin were students at Wynn ES for a short time but quickly became part of our Wynn Family! Zach will be remembered for his bright and friendly personality. Zach loved meeting new people and hugs! He was full of energy and creativity! We are grateful for the time we had with him!

“ Zachariah always made me smile, when he would walk by and give me a hug in the mornings. He also loved his brother Austin so much. They always waved to one another as they passed each other by at school. Zachariah was caring and friendly to everyone who came across him.

“ My Best Memories of Zachariah are his warm smile, his kind eyes & his zest of energy. His laugh could make anyone crack a smile. That belly laugh & smile was unforgettable. I was incredibly blessed to be Zachariah's Safe Key Teacher & friend over 2 years. Zachariah & Azariah my son were such good buddies from the moment they met, together they were a ball of energy. It was days my son Azariah had a rough time & his teacher would be giving me the layout of why my sons day wasnt the best. And Zachariah would see Azariah getting nervous, Zachariah through the fence would over yell the teacher", " Its okay Bro! Tomorrows a New day! Forget today you got this". This was the sweetest brotherhood Ive ever seen. Zachariah's heart was pure & Sweet. I was more than blessed to have known him & shown him love. He was an angel here on earth. And now an angel with the Father. His strength & Faith to fight through so much has touched my life. Forever in our hearts. Zachariah I won't say goodbye Honey because at the Supper of the Lamb I know you'll be holding Gods right hand. See you later Buddy. I look forward to seeing that Radiant beautiful smile Zachariah. You made it to GloryLove Always, Ms ShaynaRay

“ Angel I am so sorry for your loss. I can't even begin to imagine the pain you are feeling but God knows and he will see you through it. You are a great mom and did everything right to ensure he was taken care of and for that I am sure he was grateful. Praying for you and your family. Love you cousin

“ My Best memories of Zachariah are the ones where we laugh so hard our stomachs hurt. Singing TobyMacs "I see you in Everything on the playground at school & in between class". It was times teachers would separate us because we just had so much fun together. But we would always smile at each other and I knew my brother had my back. When I first met Zachariah I had a very traumatic school experience in Kindergarten. It was hard to trust teachers. But the moment I met Zachariah, he made me feel safe & accepted. He always encouraged me, " Don't worry Bro tomorrow is a New Day! Its okay Bro!" But what I will miss the most is my brother in Christ Zachariah is seeing his smile & hearing him yell, " Azariah my brother! We connected. Because we both had times of being discouraged and we lifted each other up. I know my Brother in Christ is with Jesus. And I looked forward to seeing his smile again. I will always Be your brother Zachariah. Because of you I wilp never give up. Brotherhood is forever Love Azariah Christan Age 9
